Advocacy Summit

Over 350 attendees

Activities include a Kids' Summit, advocacy trainings, exhibits, and an awards dinner

A special advocate toolkit will be available online to all advocates after the Summit

Virtual Summit

Participate online using social media!

#AdvocateforArthritis

Read blogs, follow updates, and take action!

March Ambassador Activity

We are making a major push for letters to deliver to Congress during the Advocacy Summit

Use the template on the Ambassador Activity webpage to write your own letter and have 2 friends, family, neighbors, co-workers, etc. write letters too!

We will modify the letters to go to all of your legislators and modify if they are in the Caucus

March Ambassador Activity

Complete by March 18th

You only need to report:

- Who sent the letters (including yourself)
- To get full credit for the activity, you must send a letter as well as two other people that you recruit.

Reporting Center

- It's important to log your activity
- We don't know what's happening unless you report in!

Activity Resources

- Visit the Ambassador webpage and Virtual Summit webpage for a draft letter
- We will change the language if your legislators are already on the Caucus and find your legislators so your member of Congress and Senators will receive the letters

Dear Representative _____:

I urge you as my representative to join the bicameral, bipartisan Arthritis Caucus. The Caucus is designed to inform Members of Congress and their staff about ways to prevent, control and eventually cure arthritis.

Arthritis is our nation's leading cause of disability. Two major types of arthritis alone – osteoarthritis and rheumatoid arthritis – cost the U.S. economy more than $156 billion annually in lost wages and medical expenses. More than 50 million Americans have arthritis now, and that number is expected to climb to 67 million in just 15 years.

Today, arthritis advocates are visiting Capitol Hill as part of the Arthritis Foundation's Advocacy Summit, an annual event where people living with and affected by arthritis come from every corner of the United States to Washington, DC. Though I am not able to join them in person [additional personalization here – 2 sentences maximum], I want my voice to echo theirs, and I hope you will lend your support to this important cause.

The Bicameral Congressional Arthritis Caucus, chaired by Representative Anna G. Eshoo (D-CA) and Representative David B. McKinley (R-WV), serves as an arthritis information clearinghouse and is a bipartisan forum working on legislative solutions for the challenges people with arthritis face. Raising
