

Doctor-Diagnosed Adults with Arthritis in Your State, 2009

50 million Adults in the United States live with Arthritis everyday.
 By the year 2030, an estimated 67 million or 25% of the projected total adult population will have arthritis.
 Arthritis is the most common cause of disability, limiting nearly 21 million Americans.

www.arthritis.org