Do I have to fundraise?

The purpose of the Jingle Bell Run/Walk is to raise money for the Arthritis Foundation. While there is no fundraising minimum, we highly encourage each registrant to raise a minimum of $150. Participants can do this online or by mailing a check to the Arthritis Foundation (PO Box 78423 Atlanta, GA 30357). Other fundraising ideas are a letter writing campaign, jeans day at work, garage sales, bake sales and more! Did you know you can earn prizes for fundraising?

Are dogs allowed? Yes, but we do require them to be on leashes at all time

Are Baby Joggers allowed?

Yes, you are welcome to bring your child in your baby jogger. We do ask that you start after the faster runners for safety reason

If my child is participating in the Santa Chase, do I need to register myself?

No- if your child is participating in the Santa Chase and you would like escort them, you do not need to register for this event. However, if you would like to participate in the 5K event and/or would like an event t-shirt, you will need to register as an adult for the Jingle Bell Run/Walk

Do I have to run/walk with my teammates?

No! It's wonderful if you all want to run/walk together, but we understand that everybody has a different pace. Whether you are on a team or not, you are free to register for any of the day of options

Are there awards for top finishers?

Yes! Details regarding this TBA

I will be out of town/busy on December 13- can I still get a shirt and/or fundraise?

Yes! You can still participate and fundraise with a team or as an individual if you aren't able to attend the Jingle Bell Run/Walk. Just click the "register" button and when you are asked to designate a registration type, choose "Jingle in your Jammies". You will receive a t-shirt, and your registration fee will be greatly appreciated by the Arthritis Foundation!

Can I exchange my shirt for a different size?

Yes, on the day of the event (before or after the run/walk). You will be provided with the size requested during registration and we must do the same for everyone. Please understand that we do not order many extra shirts and sizes will likely be limited. Unfortunately, we are not able to absorb the cost of shipping to exchange shirts before the event.

Are registration fees refundable?

No, if you are unable to attend the Jingle Bell Run/Walk (for any reason), your registration fee will be considered a donation to the Arthritis Foundation. You can still pick up your t-shirt at the Foundation office. The Arthritis Foundation reserves the right to cancel the Jingle Bell Run/Walk, and in this event all registration fees will be used as donations to the Arthritis Foundation.
