

Hugh C. McLeod, III, M.D.

Award of Excellence Nomination Information

To honor the legacy and philosophies of Hugh McLeod an award of excellence was established by the Arthritis Foundation in 2012 to hallmark the worth of his passion for medicine, selflessness in caring for others, and personal struggle with Arthritis.

The focus of this award of excellence is to seek out other physicians, exhibiting his character and qualities, and who will continue to influence others to follow in his footsteps. 2016 marks the fifth year of the distinguished Hugh C. McLeod, III M.D. Award of Excellence. This honor is presented annually during the fall by the Arthritis Foundation, Southeast Region, to a physician practicing in the state of Georgia who best exemplifies the life and legacy of Dr. Hugh C. McLeod, III. Our previous Award Recipients include:

2012: Dr. Frank Kelly, Forsyth Street Orthopaedic Clinic – Macon, GA

2013: Dr. Carlton Savory, Hughston Clinic – Columbus, GA

2014: Dr. Kimberley E. Wilson, Piedmont Rheumatology – Atlanta, GA
