Closing Activities and Departure by 10am

*During this time, kids are in supervised groups and participating in group games, archery and other fun camp-tivities!

Gather with old friends and make some new ones while enjoying fun activities at our Camp AcheAway site! JA Family Weekend will be filled with children's activities and educational sessions for parents. Parents (or legal guardians), children with JA and siblings are all invited!

Registration & Cost: There is no charge to attend JA Family Weekend, however pre-registration is required ($50/family refundable deposit to hold your space*)

Lodging/meals: All lodging and meals are included (breakfast, lunch and dinner on Saturday only). You can indicate special dietary preferences on registration form. All cabins are climate controlled and have private bathrooms. You may share a cabin with another family.

Attire: Casual and comfortable. Don't forget weather appropriate gear.

What to pack: 1 set of twin sized sheets/blanket or sleeping bag w/1 fitted sheet (per bed), toiletries, medication, bug spray, sun block, washcloth/towel, change of clothes, shower shoes

*Deposit will not be refunded if you cancel after October 6. Make checks payable to the Arthritis Foundation.

Directions to camp Will-a-way

From Atlanta

Take I-85 North to exit #106: Hwy 316 East toward Athens/Lawrenceville. Travel 21 miles and turn left onto GA-81. Travel 3.1 miles and the entrance to Fort Yargo State Park will be on the right.
