KIDS
GET ARTHRITIS TOO!

ARTHRITIS
FOUNDATION®

Family Day will start with a family networking lunch of pizza & salad. Then the kids will have chaperoned fun while the parents and older teens attend educational sessions. After our program ends, everyone is invited to enjoy the massive indoor water park at Great Wolf Lodge. If you've attended one of our previous Family Days at CoCoKey in Fitchburg, this is the same location, but that's where the similarities end! Great Wolf Lodge has taken the water park to new heights. You can learn more about all the water park attractions at www.greatwolf.com/NewEngland

Cost: $8.00 per person aged 2 and older, under 2 free—covers all activities!

ABOUT OUR SPEAKERS

Nalton Ferraro, DMD, MD: After working full time at Boston Children's Hospital for 18 years, Dr. Ferraro has been in practice the last 10 years with Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, Inc., in Brockton, MA. He sees children with medical problems, congenital abnormalities, obstructive sleep apnea and facial pain and operates at Children's Hospital. Dr. Ferraro's oral surgical interests include: oral surgery for special needs and medically compromised children and adults, obstructive sleep apnea in children and adults and facial pain in children and adults.

Judy Crosby, Esq.: Judy is a passionate parent volunteer whose daughter Lucy Beth has juvenile rheumatoid arthritis. She is a member of the Arthritis Foundation New England Region Board, the Boston Leadership Council and the Region's Public Health Subcommittee. Judy and her family have been strong supporters of the Boston Walk to Cure Arthritis, with Lucy Beth serving as one of this year's Youth Honorees.
