

Anne Fletcher
2014 Walk to Cure Arthritis
Adult Honoree
Carbondale, IL

Anne Fletcher is Professor of Theater at Southern Illinois University where she is the 2013 University Distinguished Teacher. She is the author of two books, and hard at work on three others. Anne received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Vassar College, Master of Arts degree from Emerson College, and her Ph.D. from Tufts University. Originally from Massachusetts, she moved to Carbondale from South Carolina where she and her husband were both teachers, and she has been in the Illinois area for 13 years.

Anne enjoys travel, walking, swimming, and pet sitting. She had reconstructive surgery on her left knee many years ago after a soccer injury, and is the proud recipient of new hip as of November 2013. She is delighted to be a part of the Arthritis Foundation's efforts, and hopes to help others in Joint Camp in the future.

We are thrilled to recognize Anne Fletcher as the 2014 Walk to Cure Arthritis adult honoree.

About the Arthritis Foundation

The Arthritis Foundation (www.arthritis.org) is committed to raising awareness and reducing the unacceptable impact of arthritis, which strikes one in every five adults and 300,000 children, and is the nation's leading cause of disability. To conquer this painful, debilitating disease, we support education, research, advocacy and other vital programs and services.
