

State of Your Health:

How the Mississippi Insurance Department Can Help You

Are you having trouble with your health coverage? The Department of Insurance protects consumers by oversight of the insurance industry. For example, extreme delays in response to a prior authorization request or surprise billing from your insurer.

Why is it important to contact the Department? The Department learns about insurance problems because of consumer complaints. If you have any questions about actions by your insurance company, the Department can be a resource for you!

MEET THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

Mike Chaney is Mississippi's 11th Commissioner of Insurance and State Fire Marshal. He's serving his third term in office and he brings business knowledge and 15 years of service in the Mississippi House and Senate.

WHY SHOULD YOU CONTACT THE DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE?

- ▼ You've already talked with your insurance company and aren't satisfied with the results.
 - Remember when you talk with your insurance company, document your phone calls by noting the name of the person you speak to, the date of the call and a brief summary of the conversation.
- ▼ The Department of Insurance wants to hear from you, the consumer. They can be extremely helpful if you are having trouble filing an appeal with your insurance company or experiencing a prior authorization that is taking too long.
 - You can file a complaint online <https://www.mid.ms.gov/consumers/online-complaint.aspx>
 - You can also contact the Department:
 - By email at consumer@mid.ms.gov
 - By fax to (601) 359-1077
 - By mail to Mississippi Insurance Department, Attn: Consumer Services Division, P.O. Box 79, Jackson, MS 39205
 - Keep your originals and send only copies of information. For a printed copy of the Department's complaint form, contact (800) 562-2957.
- ▼ By receiving consumer complaints, the Department will investigate and make sure that insurance companies are obeying state insurance laws*. If they don't receive written consumer complaints, they are not able to act.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOUR COMPLAINT IS RECEIVED?

- ▼ When your complaint is received, it will be assigned to one of their Consumer Services Specialists.
- ▼ The Specialist will review the complaint and take the necessary steps to resolve the matter.
- ▼ Please allow 20 working days to contact the company or agency that is the subject of your complaint.
- ▼ The Department will then send correspondence to you about their findings.
- ▼ For more information on the complaint process, visit: <https://www.mid.ms.gov/consumers/file-company-complaint.aspx>
