

State of Your Health:

How the Alabama Department of Insurance Can Help You

Are you having trouble with your health coverage? The Department of Insurance protects consumers by oversight of the insurance industry. For example, extreme delays in response to a prior authorization request or surprise billing from your insurer.

Why is it important to contact the Department? The Department learns about insurance problems because of consumer complaints. If you have any questions about actions by your insurance company, the Department can be a resource for you!

MEET THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

Jim L. Ridling was first appointed as the Alabama Insurance Commissioner by Governor Bob Riley in September 2008. He was reappointed by Governor Robert Bentley in January 2014, and he is the longest serving appointed Insurance Commissioner in the nation.

WHY SHOULD YOU CONTACT THE DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE?

- ▼ You've already talked with your insurance company and aren't satisfied with the results.
 - Remember when you talk with your insurance company, document your phone calls by noting the name of the person you speak to, the date of the call and a brief summary of the conversation.
- ▼ The Department of Insurance wants to hear from you, the consumer. They can be extremely helpful if you are having trouble filing an appeal with your insurance company or experiencing a prior authorization that is taking too long.
 - You can file a complaint online <https://sbs.naic.org/solar-web/pages/public/onlineComplaintForm/onlineComplaintForm.jsf?state=al&dswid=-3586>
 - You can also contact the Department:
 - By email at insdept@insurance.alabama.gov
 - By fax to (334) 956-7932
 - By mail to Consumer Services Division, Alabama Department of Insurance, P.O. Box 303351, Montgomery, AL 36130
 - Keep your originals and send only copies of information. for a printed copy of the Department's complaint form, contact (334) 241-4141.
- ▼ By receiving consumer complaints, the Department will investigate and make sure that insurance companies are obeying state insurance laws*. If they don't receive written consumer complaints, they are not able to act..

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOUR COMPLAINT IS RECEIVED?

- ▼ When your complaint is received, a file number will be assigned, and you will be sent written notification of that number. Please refer to the complaint file number when you call or write to the Department.
- ▼ The complaint is then sent to the insurance company for a response. Once the Department receives the response, they will then review and correspond with you about their findings.
