

Corinna Weckerle, MD
2013 Jingle Bell Run/Walk
Medical Honoree
Western Suburbs (Wheaton) IL

Meet Dr. Corinna Weckerle. She is a graduate of the University of Illinois at Chicago, and completed her residency in internal medicine at the University of Illinois College of Medicine at Chicago, and her rheumatology training at the University of Chicago. Additionally, she is a Fellow at the American College of Rheumatology. Dr. Weckerle is a published author, having articles in peer reviewed journals. She has won Top 10 Doctors in 2012. She is highly regarded in her field, and is well respected by her patients.

Dr. Weckerle has worked tirelessly to get her patients pain free, and able to live a normal life. Her hopes for the future regarding arthritis include better treatments and earlier diagnosis in order to prevent damage. When asked why she decided to partner with the Arthritis Foundation she replied, "I am interested in the advances to treat arthritis conditions, and I would like to help spread the word about the Foundation."

We are thrilled to have someone with Dr. Weckerle's commitment and compassion for our mission as the 2013 Jingle Bell Run/Walk Medical Honoree.

About the Arthritis Foundation

The Arthritis Foundation (www.arthritis.org) is committed to raising awareness and reducing the unacceptable impact of arthritis, which strikes one in every five adults and 300,000 children, and is the nation's leading cause of disability. To conquer this painful, debilitating disease, we support education, research, advocacy and other vital programs and services.
