

Spring Break – DC style!

Raise money for Jingle Bell Run and we'll help you attend the 2014 Advocacy Summit!

Here's your opportunity to visit our Nation's Capital AND learn more about advocacy

The 2014 Advocacy Summit will be held in Washington, DC March 24th – 26th! The annual Advocacy Summit brings together advocates, young and old, from across the country to meet with their Members of Congress. Read testimonials from past Summit participants on their experience, go to: <http://www.arthritis.org/illinois/advocacy/advocacy-summit/>

Are you still not sure about advocacy and your role? Contact Michele (Pfeilschifter) Guadalupe at mguadalupe@arthritis.org for more information or visit www.arthritis.org/advocacy.

Jingle Bell Run teams within the Heartland Region that raise $1500 or more by 12/31/13 will receive free Advocacy Summit registration for a family of four.

Can't make the Summit but want to learn more about advocacy? Raise $1000 or more by 12/31/13 and we'll bring an advocacy training to you and your friends!*

training date is subject to availability of Heartland Advocacy Staff*

Feeling more ambitious? Raise $5000 or more by 12/31/13 and receive free Advocacy Summit registration and 2 night's lodging at the Advocacy Summit hotel. Contact Chris Crowley (ccrowley@arthritis.org) with questions about this fundraising incentive.
