

Frank Martin
Arthritis Walk Honoree
Manhattan, KS

Stepping out of the shadows from assistant coach to head coach at Kansas State University just four years ago; Frank Martin has become one of the nation's most recognized young coaches. Under his guidance the tradition-rich Kansas state program has climbed back into the forefront of college basketball.

The Wildcats popular coach chose the Arthritis Foundation as his charity in the 2012 Infiniti Coaches Charity Challenge. For six weeks the nation's top college basketball coaches counted on their supporters to vote each and every day through-out the month of February. The coach with the most votes would be deemed the winner and their chosen charity would reap the benefits, courtesy of auto maker extraordinaire, Infiniti. Although Coach Martin fell short of the top spot; he did finish in the top ten out of forty-eight coaches. The Arthritis Foundation will receive a check in the amount of $5000 in Coach Martin's name!

Thanks Coach Martin. You are our HERO! A true supporter of community and a courageous fighter on and off the court is what makes the Arthritis Foundation proud to have Coach Frank Martin as our 2012 Arthritis Walk Honoree.

About the Arthritis Foundation

The Arthritis Foundation (www.arthritis.org) is committed to raising awareness and reducing the unacceptable impact of arthritis, which strikes one in every five adults and 300,000 children, and is the nation's leading cause of disability. To conquer this painful, debilitating disease, we support education, research, advocacy and other vital programs and services.
