

Siddharth Tambar, MD
2014 Walk to Cure Arthritis
Medical Honoree
Chicago, IL

Dr. Tambar is a rheumatologist at Chicago Arthritis, where they offer the nation's most advanced treatments for arthritis conditions, common joint injuries and tendinitis.

In 1997, he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics, graduating Summa Cum Laude from State University of New York at Buffalo, 2001 Doctorate of Medicine, State University of New York, Upstate Medical University at Syracuse, 2004 Internship and Residency in Internal Medicine, Northwestern Memorial Hospital, and 2008 Rheumatology Fellowship, Northwestern Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Tambar is Board Certified in Rheumatology, Board Certified in Internal Medicine and Certified in Musculoskeletal Ultrasound by the American Institute Ultrasound Medicine.

His primary clinical interests include treatment of inflammatory arthritis such as rheumatoid arthritis and psoriatic arthritis with newer more efficacious medications; treatment of osteoarthritis and tendinitis with autologous cell based treatments; and musculoskeletal ultrasound for diagnosis and guided injections for arthritis and tendinitis.

We are thrilled to recognize Dr. Siddharth Tambar as the 2014 Walk to Cure Arthritis Medical Honoree.

About the Arthritis Foundation

The Arthritis Foundation (www.arthritis.org) is committed to raising awareness and reducing the unacceptable impact of arthritis, which strikes one in every five adults and 300,000 children, and is the nation's leading cause of disability. To conquer this painful, debilitating disease, we support education, research, advocacy and other vital programs and services.
